If this Designation of Beneficiary refers only to a Group Life Insurance Policy and if I am also insured for Supplemental and/or Group Accidental Death coverage, this designation shall apply to those coverages. Please note that an employee is under no obligation to complete the Spousal Consent section of this form.

I am aware that my spouse, the Employee named above, has designated someone other than me to be the beneficiary of group life insurance under the above policy. I hereby consent to such designation and waive any rights I may have to the proceeds of such insurance under applicable community property laws. I understand that this consent and waiver supersedes any prior spousal consent or waiver under the plan.

CONDITIONS

- Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Designation of Beneficiary form, if any named beneficiary predeceases me, the life proceeds shall be payable equally to the remaining named beneficiary or beneficiaries. If no named beneficiary survives me, any sum becoming payable under said Group Policy(ies) by reason of my death shall be payable as prescribed in said Group Policy(ies).

- If this Designation of Beneficiary provides for payment to a trustee under a trust agreement, Companion Life Insurance Company shall not be obliged to inquire into the terms of the trust agreement and shall not be chargeable with knowledge of the terms thereof. Payment to and receipt by the trustee shall fully discharge all liability of said Companion Life Insurance Company to the extent of such payment.

- If you live in one of the following community property states — Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, or Wisconsin — your spouse may have a legal claim for a portion of the life insurance benefit under state law. If you name someone other than your spouse as beneficiary, payment of the death benefit may be delayed until your spouse's claim is resolved. If you make the beneficiary someone other than your spouse, it may be a good idea to complete the spousal consent section, which allows the spouse to waive his or her rights to any community property interest in the benefit.
